Understanding Your Immigration Documents

Please take out your, DS-2019,
Passport, and I-94

I-94

- Electronic record that records your arrival(s) and departure(s) from the US
- Essential to demonstrate J-1 status.
- Anytime you leave or enter the US, check your I-94 for any errors. Such as
  - Wrong visa type
  - Does not have D/S for “admit until date”
  - Incorrect spelling of our name
  - DOB errors
- U.S. laws require all nonimmigrants to carry a copy of I-94 at all times.

DS-7002

J Student Interns Only

- This is a contract between Student Intern & Georgia Tech.
- OIE facilitated the creation but the supervisor is responsible for the learning objectives
- Evaluations for both the Intern and Supervisor (final eval for all, and 6-month eval if applicable)
- Interns will receive a final evaluation certificate at the conclusion of the internship

Maintenance of J Immigration Status

Continuous progress to complete the DS-2019 objective

Maintain health insurance that meets or exceeds US DOS minimum standards (J1/J2)

Authorization from OIE for activities outside of GT (interns not eligible)

OIE must have valid U.S. living address at all times, you must notify the OIE of any changes within 10 calendar days.

Employment only in GT sponsoring department

Receive travel authorization prior to international travel

Extensions and Shortened Programs

Need to extend your program?

- The extension process will need to be initiated by your host department. You are required to show proof of funding for the length of the extension.
- You are also required to show proof of health insurance compliant with the U.S. Department of State requirements. Any gaps in coverage could lead to a denial of your extension
- Extensions must be requested before your program end date listed on the DS-2019. We ask for a minimum of 15 days prior to the end date on your DS-2019

Want to finish early?

- That is okay! Please notify your department and the OIE of your plans to depart more than 2 weeks prior to the current end date on your DS-2019

Repeat Participation Bars & the Two-Year Home Residency Requirement 212(e)

12 & 24 Month Repeat Participation Bars

- This rule will affect your ability to repeat a participation in a J-1 Program as Research Scholar or Professor after a previous participation in a J-1 program.
- Prior and current participation in a J-1 program may subject you to a 12-month or 24-month bar and prevent you from joining a J-1 sponsoring institution in the Research Scholar or Professor category.
- No waivers are available for these bars. The bars also apply to J-1 and J-2 dependents.

- IMPORTANT NOTE – these bars will apply to the Exchange Visitor at the end of the Georgia Tech program.

The Two-Year Rule: 212 (e)

What is 212 (e) Two-Year Home Country Residency Requirement?

212(e) is an agreement between the U.S. and your home country to ensure your home country benefits from your exchange experience

212 (e) Restrictions:

- You will be required to physically reside in your home country for 2 years before returning to the U.S. in specific visa statuses (Ex: H, L, K, permanent residency/Green Card)
- Not eligible to request a change of status inside the U.S. without waiver

What causes someone to be subject to 212 (e)?

- Department of State Skills List or Government Financing

How Do I Know If I Am Subject to 212 (e)?

- The consular official will note on the DS-2019 if you are subject to 212(e) and for what reason you are subject
- The visa stamp will have a note stating you are subject to 212(e)

What if I don't believe I should be subject to 212 (e)?

- It is possible to request an advisory opinion from the U.S. Department of State.

Is there any way to request that I not be subject to 212(e)?

- It is possible to request a 212\(e\) waiver, however, you will be ineligible for extension of the DS-2019 after applying for a waiver + OIE cannot provide waiver advice.

To its right are several smaller hexagonal photos: one with a flagpole and trees, one with green trees, one with people on steps, one with a person on a slide, and one with a person walking. The bottom half of the collage features a large photo of a curved stone pond with a person lying on the ground nearby.

International Travel While Participating in Your EVP

International Travel

- The Department of State only authorizes “short” breaks in a J-1 program.
- Therefore, time spent outside the US is only authorized for 30 days maximum per travel.
- You can leave and re-enter the US until the current J-1 visa in your passport expires.
- Please make sure your Form DS-2019 has been signed in blue ink by an ISSS J-1 scholar advisor within the last 12 months before you leave the US.

What do you need to re-enter the U.S.?

- You will need to complete the Travel Signature Request in iStart.
- The DS-2019 with a travel validation from an OIE advisor is valid for travel for up to one year from the date of the A/RO signature.
- Valid passport
- Valid J-1 visa
- Proof of Health Insurance compliant with U.S. DOS requirements.

Out of Country Authorization

Travel outside the US for more than 30 days is classified as an “Out of Country Authorization”. In order to receive a travel signature the scholar and the host department must prove the following

- The scholar is continuing their participation and making progress toward completion of the original activities/objectives described in the Exchange Visitor Program DS-2019 request,
- The scholar has continued funding for the exchange activities for the duration of the Exchange Visitor program, and
- The scholar has maintained continuous medical insurance for the duration of the Exchange Visitor Program.
- The scholar and any J-2 dependents must maintain health insurance while out of the US and J-2s cannot stay in the US while the J-1 is gone for more than 30 days.

Medical Insurance

Medical Insurance

- J-1 & J-2s must be covered for the duration of the Exchange Visitor program
- Failure to maintain health insurance is a violation of your J-1 visa status, and may make you ineligible for benefits (extension and travel requests)
- Evidence of Health Insurance is required for OIE check-in.
  - Medical Evacuation/Repatriation must be purchased separately if not included in health insurance plan
  - Not all insurance plans are ACA compliant. If you do not purchase an ACA compliant health coverage you are subject to a tax penalty when you file taxes.
  - GT student/employee insurance is ACA compliant
  - Stamps Health Center- Pharmacy & Dentistry Only
  - List of Insurance Companies

Dependents on J-2 visas

J-2 Dependents: Spouse or Children under 21yrs

Regulations

- If your spouse or children will be with you for a majority of your program they should apply for a J-2 visa.
- If your spouse or children will only visit you for a short period of time, a B-1/B-2 visitor visa is more appropriate.
- You must complete J-2 Check in upon their arrival to the US.

Resources

- Your dependents are permitted to enroll in college/ university classes
- Your dependents are eligible to work in the US, so long as they get authorization from USCIS.
- The Georgia Tech Language Institute has English language classes for J-2 spouses.
