

English Language Attestation:

The attestation is to document the prospective Exchange Visitor's regular use of English in their daily work and the interviewer's capacity to objectively measure the individual's English language proficiency (may include a former J sponsor, employer or person who has direct knowledge of the individual's regular use of English in their work). The language proficiency level must be based on the GT rubric.

Prospective J Exchange Visitor's Full Name:

Interviewer's Full Name:

Interviewer's Full Title:

Interviewer's Affiliation/Relationship to Interviewee:

Mode of Interview:

Based on the Georgia Tech rubric, I attest that the scholar possesses an English Language proficiency at the following level:

Comments: Providing details of the interviewer's capacity to objectively measure the individual's English language proficiency.

Attestation: As required by the U.S. Department of State, I attest: I am qualified to objectively measure/identify English proficiency, I have conducted an interview with the above prospective J Exchange Visitor, and their "English proficiency is sufficient to perform their jobs, navigate daily life in the United States, read and comprehend program materials, understand fully their responsibilities, rights, and protections, and be able to obtain assistance."

Initial here:

Interviewer's Signature:

Date of the Interview:

Location of the Interview:

When complete, the prospective J Exchange Visitor will submit this attestation using iStart in the English Proficiency Verification e-form.